

Church of the Nazarene
17th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
Kansas City, Mo., June, 1968

Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium, where General Assembly sessions are held

Welcome to the SEVENTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

KANSAS CITY WELCOMES YOU! Residents of Kansas City, Mo., are wont to speak of their city as "The Heart of America." As delegates and visitors to the Seventeenth General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene gather for this quadrennial convocation, may each one sense a hearty welcome and the cordial hospitality characteristic of this midwestern metropolis where the East and the West, the North and the South meet in neighborly fraternity.

Kansas City is the center of activity and outreach for the Church of the Nazarene. From here the church extends its evangelistic and sustaining efforts to the far reaches of the globe.

We are here to plan for the future, to push back the horizons of our involvement with the dire needs of this age. Culture, education, scientific know-how, social justice and welfare programs are not the answers to the complex problems of an ailing world. Christ is the only solution for the individual, the community, the nation, the world. From nowhere else comes a glimmer of hope.

The Church at large is faced with the challenge of "the appalling erosion of moral standards." Only a gospel which offers a living Christ who in turn offers a personal experience of sins forgiven and power to live a transformed, victorious Christian life is adequate for the spiritual and moral needs of mankind.

So with thanksgiving for past blessings, with assurance of "a very present help in trouble," and with complete commitment for the task ahead, we humbly seek God's grace and direction during the sessions of this General Assembly.

In His name,

Hardy C. Powers

The General Board of the church in session at the International Center

THE GENERAL BOARD of the Church of the Nazarene consists of 35 members elected by the General Assembly from the seven geographical zones into which the church is divided. Equal representation of lay and ministerial membership is provided.

This board continues through the four years following its election at the General Assembly and meets annually to hear reports from the general superintendents, the general officers, and the executive secretaries of the various departments.

To this board each year the General Treasurer presents a carefully prepared audit, by a public accountant, showing the receipts and expenditures of funds for the fiscal year. The members of the board also review the budgets presented by the several departments as recommended by the Finance Committee and adopts the budget they feel justified in light of the expected income.

This board, widely representative of the denomination, is the interim body chosen by the General Assembly to govern the business affairs of the church during the quadrennium. It is presided over by the several general superintendents during the annual session held each January in Kansas City, Mo.

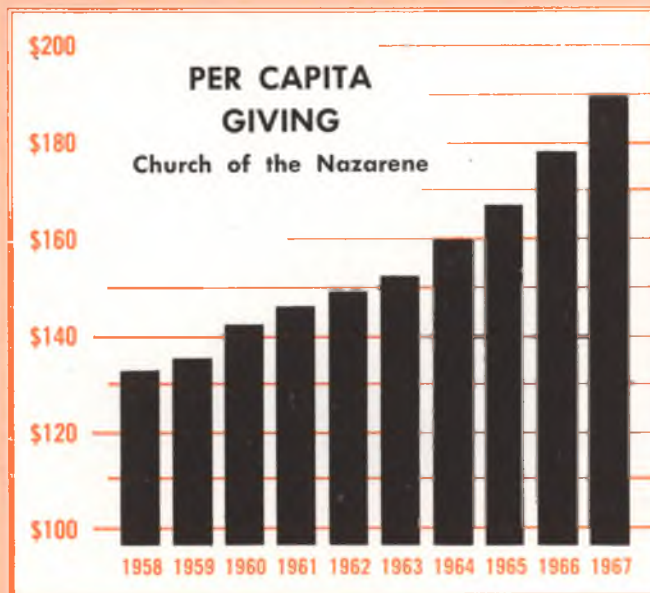

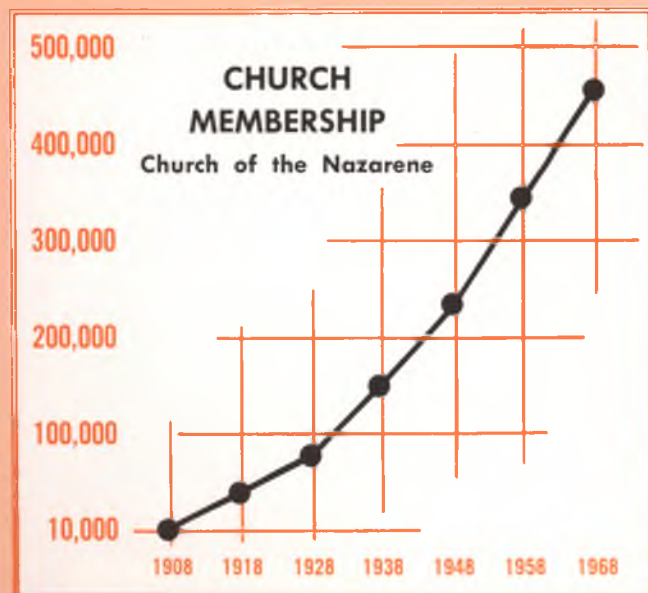

B. EDGAR JOHNSON, executing corporate papers with the assistance of Miss Kathy Butts, who is a notary public and secretary to Mr. Johnson.

The General Secretary is charged to be the custodian of all legal documents, records, and statistics which belong to the general church. The functions of the office are varied in fulfilling the responsibility—preparing Journals of General Assembly and General Board—recording correctly all statistics and reports of the general church—executing the legal contracts and records of the corporate vehicle—gathering and making available historical material relating to the rise and development of our denomination. Among the "further services" of this office are providing materials for district assemblies, and organizing for General Assemblies and General Board meetings. The General Secretary's office functions in a coordinating role between the departments of the General Board.

Office of the GENERAL

Every four years our office gears up to organize for the General Assembly. Rev. Marlow Salter, office manager, discusses problems of General Assembly planning with his secretary, Mrs. Betty Henderson.

The gathering of statistics from 4,958 Churches of the Nazarene, compiling, verifying, and recording them is an important service to the church. Pastoral records and addresses are also constantly changing and need to be updated. John Smee, our statistician, discusses the journal and records information with Mrs. Joyce Heaton, records clerk, in front of the card file of all pastors and Churches of the Nazarene.

SECRETARY

The General Secretary's office also serves as transportation office for Headquarters offices, and personal travel. Miss Gwen Vincent is travel counselor, and is seen preparing a plane ticket for Mr. Elden Rawlings, managing editor of the "Herald of Holiness."

The archives and historical records has been carried forward by R. R. Hodges, who this General Assembly completes 50 years of distinguished lay service to the church. He is pictured in the historical room which was set up this quadrennium in the Headquarters Building.

In the Times of Our Beginnings . . .

From Dr. Bresee's last public address, delivered in the chapel of Nazarene University, Pasadena, Calif., September 2, 1915:

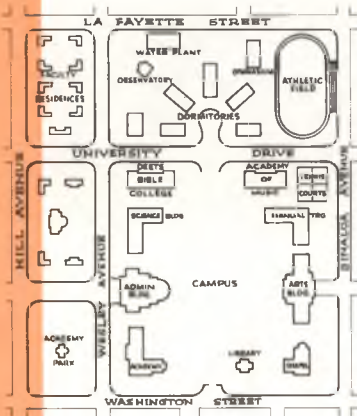

"It is not our job to turn out worldly men . . . It is our business to turn out men and women of God . . . furnished that there may be such intellectual preparation as shall enable a man to do the work that God shall call him to do. . . . We are to furnish young life with proper ideals so that they will not be fanatics or Pharisees, but knowing the truth they will be loyal in service.

. . . All the branches of knowledge, God helping us, we purpose to teach to men and women, that they may be at their best advantage for God."

—PHINEAS F. BRESEE, 1915

Dr. PHINEAS F. BRESEE

Nazarene University campus plan, ca. 1910

. . . or in Times like These!

"Culture alone will not do for our day.

A recent writer observes, 'The things we really need in our rulers—mercy, financial integrity, practical intelligence, hard work, and the like—are no more likely to be found in cultured persons than in anyone else.'

Our ideal for our holiness colleges is that they must be places where religion and the things of God and the soul are unblushingly and avowedly central.

We dare not shirk our assignment in order to spare ourselves or to avoid the heavy costs in men and money.

God calls and the biting needs of our world are upon us."

NAZARENE YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY:

involving the youth of the church

The General NYPS secretarial force: MARY ALICE SMEE and SARAH LEE (right); TERESA YORK and CAROLYN IRELAND (below).

It's a complex world—the world of youth, that is. Children, teens, and young adults are facing pressures and situations that a generation ago were only remote, grim stories on the front page of a daily newspaper. Now, young people in and out of the protective confines of the church are confronted with these damaging influences.

Into such a world the Nazarene Young People's Society goes with a program and influence designed to equip youth for these pressures—not by isolating them, but by giving young people opportunity to build inner resources that foster spiritual strength and lasting values. The organization's program is planned with this goal in mind.

Nazarene Young People's Society says to juniors (boys and girls four through 11), teens (12 through 19 years old), and young adults (men and women 20 through 40), Your church realizes that Christian development is more than three church services and an hour of Sunday school per week. It's getting together for informal learning and sharing. It's having fun. It's reaching out beyond the walls of the church with youth-to-youth evangelism. That's the Nazarene Young People's Society.

Publications . . .

CONQUEST continues to be the widest circulated denominational youth magazine around. It has more than 60,000 readers.

TOPICS is the best program material available for juniors, teens, and young adults.

NYPS Theme for 1968-72

Action . . . commitment . . . vitality . . . evangelism are all expressed in the new NYPS quadrennial theme, "Alive unto God." It echoes the Apostle Paul's words, "Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but ALIVE UNTO GOD through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Romans 6:11). Our youth organization is saying to young people around the world, We pledge to you our very best organizationally, program- and activity-wise. In turn, become alive to the needs of your world. And with the inspiration derived from your church and NYPS, "bring others to Christ."

NAZARENE AUDIO-VISUAL COMMITTEE

NAVCO

using sight and sound to help

COMMUNICATE THE GOSPEL!

N-A-V-C-O stands for Nazarene Audio-Visual Committee—organized in 1962 to meet our church needs for films, filmstrips, and other audiovisual tools.

NAVCO is an interdepartmental committee, with the executive of each department and agency of the general church serving on the committee. The committee selects its chairman, determines policy, approves the production of audiovisuals, and coordinates the interests of the various departments.

Besides producing films and filmstrips, NAVCO is also responsible for previewing and approving all films and filmstrips before they are stocked by the Nazarene Publishing House. This makes it possible for you and your church to come in contact with audiovisuals that are approved for a specific use in the church.

The following statement was adopted as the big idea underlying the use of audiovisuals in our church:

"Audiovisuals are only tools to accomplish purposes. Unless such tools can be selected, introduced, and used in such a way that the deeper purposes show through, the means become the major emphasis rather than the ends. These new tools must be made to contribute to spiritual goals."

World history shows that technological advances have preceded two great periods of spiritual awakening. The printing press contributed to the Reformation. After the invention of the steam engine and faster modes of travel, the missionary movement spread. Could today's development of communication media lead to spiritual progress? Will the church use these tools to give broader channels for worldwide revival?

The answer to these questions rests not in the audiovisuals themselves. They are only tools in our hands. How skillfully we use these tools—and for what purpose—will determine the outcome.

Mass Evangelism

Striving to dignify the office and ministry of the full-time evangelist. Majoring on the importance of using full-time evangelists. Making available on request the "Evangelists' Open Date Listing." Sponsoring the publishing of evangelistic books, tracts, and other literature. Upon request, the Department will plan and organize simultaneous local church revivals, and city-wide campaigns.

Personal Evangelism

Inspiring members of local churches to zeal in soul winning through intercessory prayer and personal witnessing. Challenging the local churches with plans to enlist their membership in soul winning. Cooperating in the preparation of materials pertaining to and for use in personal soul winning.

Visitation Evangelism

Encouraging local churches to maintain active, effective visitation programs. Formulating new plans and preparing materials for use in visitation evangelism. Updating the survey manual, "Reaching the Unchurched," in cooperation with the Department of Church Schools. Since, according to a recent survey, only 58 percent of our churches have an active visitation program, the Department will endeavor to accelerate visitation evangelism.

Moving Nazarenes

The following is from the 1964 "Manual, Church of the Nazarene": "When a member or friend of a local church or any of the departments of the church moves to another locality . . . beyond the assembly district, the local pastor shall immediately inform the 'Moving Nazarenes' Service of the Department of Evangelism, 6401 The Paseo, Kansas City, Missouri 64131, giving the name and new address."

The department has set up procedures to carry out its duty to "Moving Nazarenes."

*These and other emphases have been sponsored by the Department since its inauguration by the 1956 General Assembly.

"Go ye therefore, and teach [make disciples] . . ." (Matthew 28:19).

DEPARTMENT OF HOME MISSIONS

TWENTY YEARS OF OVERSEAS HOME MISSIONS

In 1948 there were 200 members in 10 churches in Alaska, Australia, and Hawaii—the first overseas home mission fields. In these 20 intervening years, membership has multiplied over 16 times and many new countries have been entered. In six of these areas, districts have been fully organized and delegates will be present at the General Assembly. These fields are supervised directly by the Board of General Superintendents.

HOW FAR DO YOUR SAVINGS REACH?

DIVISION OF CHURCH EXTENSION

"The Savings Bank of the Church"

Today in 41 states, nine provinces, and seven countries, Church Extension loans originally amounting to $5 million are helping to finance new church buildings, sites, additions, and parsonages—building projects that could not be undertaken without this help. Each one is a story of need, of faith, and of victory.

A major part of these loans is made up of savings, life income contracts, pooled investments, and gifts from churches and individuals. Your dollars do more for God and the church in the General Church Loan Fund, while earning interest for you.

Church Extension loans for church property or building projects must be approved by District Boards of Church Extension, recommended by the General Church Extension Secretary, and approved by the general superintendents and members of the Department of Home Missions. In 21 years there has not been one loss.

How far do your savings reach? Let them reach around the world in the work of the Lord and the church, while earning you a reasonable interest return.

Interdepartmental Aspect

The Christian Service Training program of the Church of the Nazarene is guided by the Commission composed of the executives of the various departments. During the past quadrennium it has been composed of:

Dr. G. B. Williamson, General Superintendent, Sponsor; Paul Skiles, NYPS, Chairman; A. F. Harper, Church Schools; Dean Wessels, Stewardship; M. A. Lunn, Nazarene Publishing House; E. S. Phillips, World Missions; Mary Scott, NWMS; Orville Jenkins, Home Missions; Edward Lawlor, Evangelism; Willis Snowbarger, Education.

The director is elected by the General Board upon a joint nomination by the Board of General Superintendents and the Christian Service Training Commission. The program is financed by the General Budget and the Nazarene Publishing House.

The value of the interdepartmental aspect of the training program is evidenced by the cooperative planning and promotion of training that are designed to meet the needs of each department of the church.

Advanced CST Courses

The interest in a depth study in certain areas has resulted in the development of a new group of Advanced Courses. The first of this series is,

Text: Exploring the Old Testament

These courses are designed for Home Study, but may be offered in the local church. Other units being planned will use the books Exploring the New Testament and Exploring Our Christian Faith.

Children's Materials

Two projects assigned to the Commission have been completed this quadrennium: This Is My Church (children's membership study) and This I Believe (a child's catechism). A leader's guide has been prepared for each study.

These materials have been designed for use in preparing children for church membership. They are not courses for credit.

Growth Analysis and Projection—1970

February-March-April of 1970 is the time set for the denomination-wide self-study by local congregations. In this study the church will review four basic areas as related to the mission of the church—evangelism. They are: (1) Outreach and Evangelism, (2) Buildings and Equipment, (3) Administrative Practices, and (4) Local Church Program. In addition to the analysis the local church will establish some long-range goals for the congregation.

Goals for the Quadrennium

1. A CST director in every church.
2. Fifty percent of all Sunday school teachers and officers reaching the REGISTERED level in the training program. We now have 65,648 officers and teachers; 12,215 are Registered.
3. Increase in lay training Institutes.
4. Launching of Advanced CST Courses.
5. Increased use of church membership materials for adults, youth, and children.
6. Twenty-five new books of our own.
7. Increased use and availability of materials in various languages for use in world areas.
8. A greater emphasis upon training for service.

NAZARENE SERVICEMEN'S COMMISSION

The chaplain's duties are not always confined to the post chapel or office complex. There are times during combat when, for a few brief moments, men gather in small groups—two or three, or a dozen—to pray and meditate. It's a vital part of military life. The chaplain feels compelled to be where the men are.

Services Provided for Military Personnel

POST PASTORS

More than 400 pastors whose churches are located near military bases receive each month a list of those who have been stationed there. This is both a method of introduction and a contact cue for the pastor.

PUBLICATIONS

CONQUEST magazine is automatically sent free to all servicemen. However, by filling out the card provided, they may also receive, free of charge, HERALD of HOLINESS, STANDARD, and COME YE APART. OTHER SHEEP is sent to all overseas personnel.

SERVICEMEN'S RETREAT

With the cooperation of the military, religious retreats are provided for servicemen and their dependents stationed abroad. Nazarene retreats are conducted annually in Berchtesgaden, Germany. Occasionally they are held in the Orient as well.

The SPANISH DEPARTMENT

IN TIMES LIKE THESE . . .

For the Spanish-speaking countries of the world, times of turmoil, times of change, times when all sorts of ideologies are capturing the minds of millions of its mushrooming population. Times also of growth—growth of aspirations, and of industries, and of schools, and also of the Church. Times of change, when new generations are marching, and questing, and searching. Times, then, of opportunity, if also fraught with dangers. Times to test men's faith. And our faith is that . . .

GOD IS ABLE

to quench the ancient thirst of the human spirit, and, yes, even the longings of Juan Sanchez, average man of Spanish America. Our faith is that God is able to free him, and to motivate him, and to guide him aright in the difficult decade ahead, and to make him a participant in the most glorious revolution of all, that of the Spirit. What is more, we believe that God is able to do it in times like these THROUGH THE SPANISH DEPARTMENT, the literature arm of the missionary endeavor of the Church of the Nazarene in Latin America—a department born of the need, forged from a vision, grown strong with the prayers and support of all our people, a department with a past rich with blessings and growth,* and with a challenging future. And because we believe it, we plunge into this quadrennium, in which, the Lord willing, we shall celebrate OUR TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY,* eager to serve our church and to carry out our assignment, committed to spread biblical holiness throughout the Spanish-speaking world, depending on God, and firmly persuaded that IN TIMES LIKE THESE millions can discover that GOD IS ABLE, and make that glad discovery through the miracle of the printed page. To that end, we solicit your prayers.

Let the Story Be Told

THE OFFICE of the Nazarene Information Service (N.I.S.) is starting its second decade of writing and distributing the story of accomplishments by the Church of the Nazarene for the kingdom of God.

It has been the assignment of N.I.S. since 1958 to tell the evolving news story about "the people called Nazarenes."

In this endeavor, the office has enjoyed the cooperation of Nazarene leaders and the interest and support of Nazarenes everywhere.

A Fruitful Decade

During the 1958-68 decade Nazarenes made news.

- World membership grew to over 450,000 persons—an increase of 125,000 since 1958.
- Sunday school enrollment topped 1 million—an increase of 325,000 since 1958.

Writing for Newspapers

The N.I.S. sends articles of interest about Nazarenes and the Nazarene program to newspapers and magazines, and the major press associations.

The office mails stories regularly to more than 2,200 newspapers whose addresses are arranged in the N.I.S. files according to our church districts.

N.I.S. also mails regularly to editors of 45 other holiness and evangelical bodies, and to radio and television editors when the Nazarene news story warrants it.

We Have a Mandate

Nazarenes, and all evangelicals, recognize a mandate from God to spread the Gospel to all nations.

Good press relations are essential in keeping our doctrine and standards of holiness before the world.

N.I.S. continues to enjoy the challenge and the opportunity of God's work in this our day.

The Church of the Nazarene

HISTORICALLY, the Church of the Nazarene dates back to the turn of the present century when three independent holiness groups sprang up: one in New England; one in California; and one in Texas, Oklahoma, and Tennessee. In 1908 representatives of these groups met in General Assembly at Pilot Point, Tex., to form what is now known as the Church of the Nazarene. United in faith and practice, the 228 churches which comprised this union followed the theological persuasion of John Wesley with his insistence on vital Christian experience and emphasizing the experience of entire sanctification or perfect love.

CHURCH GOVERNMENT for the Nazarenes is representative, combining some of the features of both episcopal and congregational forms of administration. The congregations of a given district elect delegates to represent them at the annual district assembly. Every four years the several districts elect an equal number of ministers and laymen to represent them at the quadrennial assembly of the church. This is the supreme law-making body of the denomination. At the General Assembly the highest administrators are elected—the general superintendents; the general officers; the editor of the official church paper, the "Herald of Holiness"; and a General Board to transact the business of the denomination between General Assemblies.

WORLD OUTREACH for the Church of the Nazarene includes more than 6,000 established churches in over 50 world areas. Eleven colleges and a graduate seminary provide training centers where quality education, spiritually motivated, keeps eternal values in focus. The Nazarene Publishing House proclaims the gospel by the printed page. Our radio broadcasts are heard over hundreds of stations in English, Spanish, and other languages. Press evangelism, as reported in newspapers, magazines, and local releases, helps to create a favorable climate for the full-salvation message.
