

TREVECCA ECHOES

Trevecca Nazarene College Nashville 4, Tennessee

VOLUME 3

APRIL 12, 1946

NUMBER 13

"Olivet To Calvary" To Be Given By Chorus Sunday

'46 SUMMER SCHOOL SESSION TO BEGIN JUNE 7

The twelve-week summer quarter will begin June 7, the day after commencement. President Mackey announces that the summer session will be under the same leadership as the regular school year.

The largest summer school enrollment in the history of the school is expected. It is probable that the dining hall will be open during the summer.

PRIVATE DRIVE TO BE STARTED SOON

The new road proposition is just about to be closed. 1500 to 2000 cubic yards of dirt will be removed from a high place on the campus and used on the highway and in return the state will construct a 50-foot drive with a Macadamized surface put on. Dr. Mackey says we may dream of the trees on each side of the road leading up to the college building and of beautiful sidewalks and so forth. Let's put our best efforts forth to bring these dreams to pass.

REV. N. W. SANFORD DIES

Dr. Bracken returned Monday from Bethany, Oklahoma, where he attended and assisted in the funeral services of Rev. N. W. Sanford. Rev. Sanford is well-known and loved in the Nazarene church, being affiliated with the church for many years. He has held many important offices in the church, being one time elected president of Trevecca. For the past few years he has been postmaster at Bethany, Oklahoma. We are sorry to lose this good man from our church and our hearts go out in sympathy to the family and friends.

WHO'S WHO

Glenn Cass

Glenn Cass, senior of Trevecca Nazarene College, was born in Mississippi. He attended grammar school in several small towns in the central part of the state.

At the age of thirteen he moved with his parents to Columbus, Georgia. Here he began his high school work but did not complete it.

When he was sixteen years of age, Mr. Cass was saved and called to preach. A call to preach meant a call to prepare. In 1939 he came to Trevecca and resumed his studies. By attending summer school he was graduated from high school in 1941. Glenn received his theological diploma in June, 1943, and his Th. B. degree last year. This year he is to receive his A. B. degree, with a major in English.

In August, 1942, Mr. Cass and Mary Frances Lord, a preacher and graduate of Trevecca, were married. For the past year they have been pastors of the Church of the Nazarene in Franklin, Tennessee.

SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

Tonight in the McKay Hall Auditorium the class of '49 will give an interesting scientific program. The program will begin promptly at 8:00 p.m. The public is invited.

Presentations To Be Given At Immanuel and Grace Churches

"Olivet to Calvary," an Easter cantata written by J. H. Maunder, will be presented by the school chorus, Sunday, April 14. The presentation will be in the Alumni Auditorium at 3:00 p.m. Approximately fifty voices under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Bennett will give this sacred selection for the third consecutive year.

Mrs. Bennett has announced that it is to be given at Immanuel Church of the Nazarene on Wednesday, April 17, and on Thursday the 18th it will be given at Grace Nazarene Church. Both of the above engagements will be in the evening at 7:30.

It is believed that this year the presentation will be the best ever.

NAZARENES BUY PROPERTY ADJOINING CAMPUS

Rev. J. D. Saxon, district superintendent of Tennessee, sold twenty-two lots through a real estate agency. These lots are located near to the school and were all sold in about an hour. Mrs. Ladell Morgan bought a lot for her father, V. L. Nabors, of Alabama. Mr. Callis, from First Church, bought a lot. Rev. H. H. Wise purchased four lots. Leslie Jeter from Miami, Florida, bought one lot; Mr. Rubens, from the department store on the pike purchased three lots. Jimmie Thrasher purchased one for Homer Adams. Rev. H. R. Ward bought two lots. Mr. J. R. Vaughn also bought one.

We are awaiting the day when beautiful dwellings will be constructed on this property which adjoins the college property.

MACKEYS VISIT TREVECCA STUDENTS AT THE SEMINARY

On our recent visit to Kansas City, Missouri, we had a most interesting and pleasant visit with the Trevecca
(Continued on page 4)

TREV-ECHOES

Published weekly by the students of Trevecca Nazarene College under the sponsorship of the College Junior Class.

MEMBER
ASSOCIATED COLLEGIATE PRESS
STAFF

Editor

HOWARD WALL

Associate Editor

BERNICE ROEDEL

Business Manager KATHRYN PASCHALL

Assistant Business Manager -----

..... RUBY MCCURLEY

Reporters .. FLORENCE EDEN MORRIS

IRIS HARRIS

Columnists ----- D. H. SPENCER

RAY DUNNING

JOHN TURNER

Stenographers ----- ALMA TEEPLE

JEAN LOVE

Proofreader ----- MARIAN EDWARDS

Faculty Advisor .. MRS. A. B. MACKEY

SPICE of LIFE

D. H. SPENCER

A newspaper writer, commenting on success in life, said that a successful person was one who knew what he wanted and got it. Another writer expressed the same thought in different words in an article dealing with Eve's decision in the garden of Eden. She patted Eve on the back because Eve made it possible (this writer thought) for man to gain far more knowledge than he could otherwise have gained.

Both Bible teaching and logical thinking reveal that these statements are shallow and erroneous. To get what we want will mean defeat and ruin unless we want that which is right. Eve knew what she wanted and got it, but it did not mean success because she lost the very things that make life successful and brought sorrow and hardship upon herself. Even if we were to admit that Eve made it possible for man to have much knowledge, that does not prove that it was profitable to him. While he may have gained some useful knowledge, he gained much that was not only useless but also harmful. God's plan is not knowledge, but truth.

Truth means freedom, and freedom is essential to success. No person can be successful until he is free from the things that keep him from being like God.

Success is based on purpose and not on achievement. It is a matter of progress in the right direction rather than attainment regardless of direction. The first step toward success is wanting the things in life that are right. Any person seeking for other things may achieve apparent success but his work will not endure because it is builded on sand. A successful person will have an unselfish goal in life that will demand the best that there is in him. He will put God first and seek whole-heartedly to reach his goal by God's help. Not the least important of all, he will make daily progress along the way. He will be able to say each day, "I have fought a good fight, I have kept the faith, and I am still headed in the right direction."

NEXT WEEK'S TREV-ECHOES TO BE EDITED BY
ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Miss Bernice Roedel, associate editor, will have complete charge of the campus paper next week. Miss Roedel is expecting to present an interesting issue. If you know any alumni or current news bring it to our office from 2:00-4:00 each evening.

A STUDENT'S MEDITATION

I am a student at Trevecca. I think that I have average intelligence and that I am at least nearly normal in all respects, but I am perplexed beyond measure. I came to school with great hopes of accomplishing the most possible during my four years. I came to register and my schedule was made out according to what beginners should take—that was all right. I took it and liked it and felt that it was right, even though at times it was hard. Then another registration came and nobody said anything about what I should take, so I changed things as I chose and I had a good time of it. The next year it was the same thing—taking what I was interested in and what was easy. Now I want to graduate in the coming year, but I don't think I can do it. It suddenly comes to light that I have not taken this and have omitted that and that I did not need as much of the other as I did take. I had not even known that it would be necessary to have a certain number of hours for a major and so many more for a minor—not that I think it wrong, for I see the wisdom in it, but why didn't somebody tell me before now? Yes, I should have read the catalog, which I did, but it didn't solve all the problems—I know some folks who have not read any of it yet. I should have settled on the doorsteps of somebody who could have helped me and I should have stayed there until I got attention, but I was new and bashful and then I didn't realize the importance of it all, either. Why must this happen to me? Why couldn't somebody realize the fix I am in and help me? Or who is there to help me? I know that I am not very important when it comes to the total college picture, but I am me and if I could get things all straightened out just right I think I could make a contribution to the church and to the world. It will all "come out in the wash," but the suspense is terrible, and there's no telling how mixed up I will be by then. —The College Student.

Editor's Note: The solution to this problem would be a faculty advisor for each individual.

JENKINS-BREED WED IN ALABAMA

Jasper Jenkins, college sophomore, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jenkins of Cleveland, Mississippi, married Sara Breed, a student here in '45. The ceremony took place March 31, 1946 at the Church of the Nazarene, Shawmut, Alabama, with Rev. Lawrence B. Hicks, outstanding Nazarene evangelist, officiating. Mrs. Jenkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Breed of La Fayette, Alabama.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with white and navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

FROM THE TOWER

Marian Edwards

Hear ye! Hear ye-e-e! Bill Elkins won't have a thing to do with it.

Girls, the Bachelors' Club might be receiving applications now. You'll have to do it that way because if the dozen young men are caught dating they must pay a fine of one dollar. The confirmed bachelors are about seven eligibles (How could they?!) and the rest are on their way. Any boys who are interested in cutting off diplomatic relationships with all the fair young ladies (and the sun-tanned ones too) could probably place their names on file with Ed Bannister, secretary of the organization. President Wilson Douglas and the other fellows might condescend to admit them. I understand that Leon Barnes is only an honorary member. Perhaps he hasn't fully decided to take the fatal step.

Oh, this new club is destined to be great. Its manager, Carter Roberts, is a fine example of the true aims of the group. (Girls, they're just wolves donning sheep's clothing. Beware.)

I have a hunch. In the springtime a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love. The fellows felt it creeping on and rather than be won by the ladies at this critical time of the school year, they have pledged to each other to study. Have you ever? Well, I never! Maybe it isn't such a bad idea though. Old Maids, make them stick to it.

Psst! Bachelors, Ed Bannister sat with a girl in the library Tuesday night and "walked her" to the dorm. No, he didn't linger.

FLEMING SPEAKS IN CHAPEL

We consider ourselves very unfortunate in not being able to have Rev. Bona Fleming in chapel every day. Although he was able to be here one day we appreciate his practical and inspiring message and hope that he may come back soon.

NEWS COLUMNIST RETURNS HOME BECAUSE OF HEALTH

We are sorry to lose John Turner who was compelled to go home because of his ill health. He has been a help to all of us in his readiness to work, being president of the college sophomore class and news columnist for Trev-Echoes. Our prayers go with him as he is away and we hope that he will soon be able to return.

NEW BOOKS FOR YOU—TO READ

You haven't noticed the new books in the library? Then I shall tell you the titles of a few of them and you will find pleasure in reading them, I'm certain.

First, what do you know about Beethoven? You will find information about him and other important men of the past in the book, Stories of the Great Operas and their Composers. Art in Everyday Life—by Goldstein should interest the boys especially because it gives suggestions for choosing men's clothing. Included, also, in this book is Store Display and Industrial Design.

I'm sure Miss Person would be delighted if someone were to read the entire book of Collected Poems of Robert Frost.

You have always wanted to go around the world by airplane to take it in the book, The Flying Carpet by Halliburton. It is a road to romance through the sky!

The Yearling—a fiction story, should interest you. There are many others but you can find them at your leisure in the library.

But wait one moment! We have some new Education Books and every one planning to teach school sometime should read them. Here are the titles of four of them:

Principles of Guidance by Jones.
Modern Practices in the Elementary School by Hockett and Jacobsen.
Student Teaching by Schorling.
Psychology of Elementary School Subjects by Reed.

Make reading in the library one of your activities.

MINISTERIAL STUDENT ACCEPTS TULLAHOMA PASTORATE

Rev. Ansel Forsythe, ministerial student from Fort Mills, South Carolina, has accepted the pastorate of the Tullahoma, Tennessee, Church of the Nazarene.

Rev. Forsythe, formerly pastor at Decherd, Tennessee, entered Trevecca in September of this year. Before entering school he served as pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Fort Mills, South Carolina.

Forsythe succeeds Rev. Wallace Bell who has accepted a church in

MISSIONARIES ENJOY MESSENGER AND TREV-ECHOES

The editor has been sending to Rev. and Mrs. David Browning, his former pastor and now missionaries to British Honduras, copies of Trev-echoes, the Messenger, and other news from the states. In a recent letter received from Rev. Browning, the following is copied.

"Thanks so much for the Trevecca papers. Rev. Harold Hampton, the missionary in charge, has been with me the past several days (letter was written March 18) and he has translated several of the articles into Spanish for the Border. The papers are doing some good that you had not counted on I am sure."

David F. Browning, son of the evangelist Rev. Raymond Browning, is a graduate of Olivet Nazarene College and Asbury Seminary. Rev. Browning served as pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Raleigh, North Carolina, four years. Mrs. Browning is the former Miss Elizabeth Lumpkin of Raleigh. They have a daughter, Molly Ray.

The Brownings left the states for British Honduras, December 24, 1944.

LIBRARY ORDERS EQUIPMENT

Our library will soon be more efficiently equipped by the addition of a new charging desk. A new card catalog has been ordered and paid for by the College Hill Church. Book supports, a mending kit for books, and two dictionary stands are also to be received. Our college library is attractive and conducive to good studying, and will be even more so as each new piece of equipment arrives.

The new charging desk is expected in a few days.

COLLEGE PLANS HIGH SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

Does this sound like a good time? A bonfire, plenty to eat, lemonade to drink, trio and duet numbers and a lot of other things.

The college is entertaining the high school who won the DARDA Sales Contest.

Watch Trev-echoes for time and place.

Alabama. Rev. Forsythe plans to continue in school here at Trevecca.

MACKEYS VISIT STUDENTS

(continued from page 1)

group now enrolled in the Nazarene Seminary. The first one to meet us was Billy Wade Downing who was hurrying around a corner on his way to chapel. While we were talking to him, along came Leon Chambers and Rupert Cravens, also on their way to chapel. We joined them and enjoyed a most excellent lecture on missions by Mrs. J. B. Chapman. At the close of the service we discovered the rest of "our boys," namely, Claude Galloway, Koy Phillips, and Boyd Davis. They all seem to be quite happy, but apparently news from Trevecca was most welcome to them.

By and large, we gathered some information might be interesting to you. In most instances either wives or husbands (sometimes both) are working. Mrs. Cravens has a position in the Headquarters Building next door to Seminary Hall. Mr. Phillips is pastor of a newly organized church in a small town some forty miles out, while Mrs. Phillips is employed as high school teacher in the Kansas City System. Mrs. Chambers is clerk in a store "just around the corner" from the Hall; Claude Galloway is "super" salesman for the Electrolux Corporation. Mrs. Galloway keeps busy keeping house and taking care of their two small son, Billy and Jack. Mr. Davis is serving as Youth Director for a Lutheran Church and Mrs. Davis has been private secretary to Dr. Benner for some time. Mr. Downing is working at the Publishing House while Mrs. Downing spends most of her time with their small daughter, Ruth, who has grown into quite an attractive young lady since we last saw her.

Friday evening we met with the group (with the exception of the Davises and Billy Wade Downing) for dinner at the California Ranch House. It was a very enjoyable occasion for us. Incidentally, the boys told us they were studying very hard—I wonder!—Mrs. A. B. Mackey.

Meet Your Friends At LEHMAN BROTHERS GRO.
 Softdrinks -Candy -Meats -Groceries
At The Foot Of The Hill

SPORTS

By Ray Dunning

High School Breaks

Losing Streak—But!

In a fast and furious game Thursday the high school boys blasted out a victory over the college. I'll have to admit that the high school outplayed the college but both sides were lousy with errors. Over punk pitching, the underclassmen got the majority of their runs in the first inning. The college got five runs their first time up but after that they never threatened the high school score. About the middle of the game the college started rapidly gaining on their opponents but the lead was too great. The final score was: high school 32 and college 25, which was proof enough that both teams never came near playing good ball in the field. Well, it's about time the high school was winning something. This is the first athletic game they have won this year. Line-up is as follows:

COLLEGE		HIGH SCHOOL
Hoeutt	c	Young
Dunning	p	Hoffman
Langford	1b	Errickson
Tate	2b	Spruill
Digby	3b	Walker*
Thrasher	ss	Rowland
Morgan	lf	Coodin
Pennington	cf	Kelley
Wiggs	rf	McNaron

*Ex-student.
 Sub for college—Peacock
 Subs for high school—Williams, Smith.

Langford pitched most of the game for the college.

But—the college came back to trample the boys under foot with a 20 to 8 victory on Thursday. Both sides played splendidly but the college just outslugged the underclassmen. The line-up has practically the same constituency as the previous game. It's bad enough to lose by such overwhelming score; so I won't rub it in.

FOR SALE

UNDERWOOD TYPEWRITER
 STANDARD SIZE
 Good condition—Terms
 Paul Blackmon

I understand that the G. I.'s are going to incorporate themselves into a team. The more, the merrier, I always heard; so the college will have to start digging again to find enough men to have a team. Also the high school may lose their star pitcher, Johnnie Hoffman, to the service.

TREVECCA STUDENTS CONDUCT YOUTH REVIVALS

Robert Gray, president of the Student Council, will begin a revival at Donelson, Tennessee, Monday, April 17. Gray, a college sophomore, is pastor of an Independent Holiness Church in Kirksey, Kentucky. The Donelson revival will continue through Easter Sunday.

Milton Turney, college freshman and pastor of the Nazarene church in Mayfield, Kentucky, has conducted a two-weeks' youth revival at McClurkan Memorial Church here in the city. Robert Sumner, former student, conducted the music at this meeting.

Our Christian Workers President, John Chambers, returned Monday from a five-day meeting in Sheffield, Alabama. Chambers is a member of the freshman class.

Science Program

TONIGHT 8:00

DINING HALL

Presented By College Freshman

INTERESTING — EDUCATIONAL

COMPLIMENTS OF

THE COTTON SHOPPE

206 5th Avenue North
 NASHVILLE 4, TENNESSEE