Concert Choir Tours Florida

On Friday morning, March 31, the Concert Choir left for a ten day tour of Georgia and Florida. First concert was in Atlanta at the Brookhaven Church of the Nazarene. Saturday morning found the choir on the "First Lady' headed for Florida with the first stop being in Clearwater where the choir was on hand for the dedication of the new sanctuary of Clearwater First Church of the Nazarene. Sunday night was in Bradenton First Church, Monday -Tampa First Church, Tuesday – Miami First Church, Wednesday – LakeWorth First Church, Thursday - Gainesville First Church, Friday - Thomasville, Georgia, Saturday zone rally at Atlanta First, Sunday morning at Atlanta, and Sunday night at Rossville Church of the Nazarene.

The highpoint of the tour was in the beginning of revival at Atlanta First Church with the Dr. Jack Armold bringing the message "The Prodigal Son".

The music ranged from contemporary (Shout for Joy) to Youth music (Jesus, Jesus) to Gospel (Whosoever Meaneth Me and Now I Belong to Jesus) to Spirituals (He's Got the Whole World and Jericho). Taken from the 45 voice choir are several smaller groups - girls' trio, mixed quarter, male quarter, and octet.

The churches were excellent hosts and treated the choir as royalty. Only once on the whole tour did we have fried chicken and that was on our own picnic at the beach. There was some free time to visit points of interest. A few places we visited were Cypress Gardens, Lion Country Safari, Grant Park, and beaches at Bradenton and Hollywood. In Miami we had the morning to spend shopping at one of the larger malls and in Gainesville Prof. Patterson got in a little water skiing.

There are many experiences which came out of the tour - far too many to relate here. All members of the choir have their own experiences to relate. Notably Bob and Vic can tell you about experiences in our hosts' homes, Debbie and Shelly can tell you about the bus ride, and just ask anyone about Lion Country Safari.

TASFAA is composed of all institutions of higher education in Tennessee as well as those persons associated with student financial aid in state and federal agencies, the banking community, American College Testing, and the College Entrance Examination Board. As President-elect, Mr. Wall will be Program Chairman for the state meeting and will serve on the Executive Committee of the Southern Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators. SASFAA is composed of all universities and colleges in the nine southern states and works directly with Washington and the Atlanta Office of Education of the federal government as well as the national offices of American College Testing and the College Entrance Examination Board. Mr. Wall will assume the presidency of TASFAA in April of 1973.

The program grew out of requests by young people to be directly involved in the overseas work of the church. At the same time. letters from missionaries indicated a need for summer assistance. So, Student Mission Corps was born.

Students chosen must be enrolled in a college or graduate school. They must be under 31 years of age and members of the Church of the Nazarene. SMCers are assigned to specific overseas fields by the Department of World Missions. For about eight weeks the SMCers invest their talent and energy to serve. Each SMCer pays a

STUDENT DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE APPROVED

The Dean of Student Affairs is the responsible officer of the College for instructing students in the standards of Trevecca Nazarene College and for the administration of discipline. He is aided by the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs, Judiciary Committee, Resident Directors, Resident Assistants and Dormitory Councils. The Dean of Student Affairs has the authority to discipline without reference to those persons, committees, and councils who are delegated authority to assist him in the disciplinary process except in cases of dismissal and suspension.

There are three types of discipline depending on the degree of violation of school policy. The most serious type involves suspension or dismissal. Short of suspension, a student may be placed on social probation.

Violation of probation may result in suspension or dismissal. Social restrictions are imposed for lesser infractions and include, e.g. campusment, fines, "late minutes," etc.

The following provisions are made to guarantee an equitable administration of all discipline: Social restrictions may be imposed by the Dean of Student Affairs and/or his assistants (see par. 1) and there is no appeal beyond the Dean. Social Probation may be imposed by the Dean of Student Affairs. In such cases appeal may be made to the Judiciary Committee. Social probation may also be imposed by the Judiciary Committee in which case there is no appeal. Dismissal or suspension may be imposed only by the Dean of Student Affairs in conjunction with the Judiciary Committee. The student shall be notified of his right to appear before the Judiciary Committee. If a student wishes to appeal suspension or dismissal on the grounds that procedures, laws, or civil rights have been violated, he may request a hearing of such appeal by the Administrative Council.

If a student makes an appeal on one or more of the grounds mentioned above, he must make such request in writing to the Dean of Student Affairs within three school days of the time of the disciplinary action. Until his appeal is acted upon, he must abide by the discipline administered. The request for an appeal will be considered by the Administrative Council within three school days of the time the request is received by the Dean of Student Affairs or at a date mutually agreed upon by the student and the Administrative Council. If the Administrative Council agrees to hear an appeal it will act upon such appeal promptly. College authorities will call in civil authorities if they are needed in cases such as thefts, disruption of normal college functions, illegal use of drugs, etc.

Mr. Dale Sievers Receives Honor

Mr. Dale L. Sievers has been invited to be part of an Evaluation Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Commission on Secondary Schools for evaluation of the Foreign Language Department at Joelton High School, Joelton, Tennessee.

Mr. Sievers will be meeting with the faculty members of Joelton High School April 10-13 in evaluation sessions. Joelton High School is seeking membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. This is the same association to which Trevecca College was recently admitted the only difference being that this is the Secondary School commission of the association.

sixty-five per cent of the world's natural resources. Two per cent hogging sixty-five per cent. Hogging sixty-five per cent of food purchasing and growing power. Reverse those figures somewhat. Say, ninety-eight per cent of the population hogging (???) thirty-five per cent of the world's resources. Let's see, 2% is to 65% as 98% is to 35%. Yes, that's about equal. The Wonders of Modern Math. Well hardly. Seem fair? Is it any wonder then that the Third World distrusts the Yanquies"? Would you? What would you do? Think about it.

A bowl of rice. A bowl of rice a day. If you're lucky that is. If you aren't lucky, you might be one of those four people who dies from starvation while someone else carelessly reads these. While you die. From simple, uncomplicated hunger. Think about it. Then thank God that you're who you are and that you're where you are. Yes, think about it, Christian.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR LETTERS TO THE EDITOR LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Editor,

The following plea was found affixed to the post office door in one of the dorms, "I would greatly appreciate the return of the money that so hastely departed my abode this last weekend by non-return mail. If I find it has found its way home again — nothing will ever by said or done.

R. B. P. O. Box 246 Shingler Apts."

Numerous request were made (beginning with the second week of the winter quarter) to the head resident of the dorm and to the dean of students which in turn passed the request on to our highly efficient maintanance department to change the door lock on this particular abode. The request somehow failed to be acted upon and never found its way to the ever cautious persons who use this door. Now with only a few days remaining in the quarter the task of changing locks has still bewildered those living in this humble abode. An unmentionable amount of money was taken from this person who placed the advertisement in the dorm for the return of his money. After having reported this incident to competent officials they assured these persons that the lock would be changed within one day.

The residers of this abode are even more bewildered, not only does the door lock remain unchanged but the incident remains to be investigated by those competent officials.

Maybe we need to solicit another survey on what it means to be a christian college. To be exploited by thieves is one thing but to be confronted with false hopes from someone you have the most confidence in and one whom you trust is beyond my comprehension. This incident leaves Sesame Street a little more than bewildered or bewitched.

> Sincerely, Larry E. Thompson

Dear Mr. Know-It-All:

I would like to know why, at least in your estimation, it is that the recent ASB elections went as they did. I mean, five totally uncontested offices, especially when out of only a possible eight. Tell me now, is this not the epitome of apathy on Trevecca's campus?

I myself have my own suspicions and/or reasons for why five candidates ran unopposed. They are listed below numerically (not necessarily in any order indicative of my own personal preference): (cont. on page 3, col. 1)

AN EXPLANATION

By way of explanation, a word or two as to why the Editorial in the last issue was decidedly conspicuous by its absence. The Editorial, concerned with the ecological state of our nation, world, and, too, I suppose our minds, was in itself considered to be too "dirty." An ecological editorial thought to be too "dirty"? Is there no depth to which our polluted minds will not sink? Yecchhh!!!

They will be joining the Supervisory Staff, here at the plant, and they will be as useful in production out put As they will be uplifting to the company Morale by Their very presence. That will be All, thank you. Now back to your cheeses. You are dismissed."

Naturally I would tend at first to agree or side with your third alternative, but putting aside all selfish concerns and sticking to my ever-continuing policy of trying to avoid the controversial, I must take a stand with your first alternative: that "Students just don't care about student government." That is, I agree, maybe we here on campus tend to be too apathetic but then, who cares!?!?! — Mr. Know-It-All, otherwise and usually known as the Editor.

WHILE PASSING THROUGH THE PARK

While passing through the park today

As I was hurrying on my way! I saw the strangest people sitting there.

Their clothes were really very odd;

I'm sure they can't believe in God And wear those beards and all that hair; down to there!

I think if only they were shaved That then perhaps they could be saved

For I suppose that God must love them, too.

So we must send a missionary Who won't care if they are hairy; pertion of his transportation cost. The field provides lodging and meals.

Orientation is a vital part of the SMC summer. This summer 77 students will be involved for one week in intensive training for overseas work. Classes cover strategy, customs, health, the role of the student, personal evangelism, music, special ministries with various age groups, and recreational skills.

Those students going to Spanish speaking areas will take an additional week of training near Mexico City for a "total immersion" language experience.

The SMCers will depart in July for nineteen Central and South American countries. This year four new countries have been added to the list of fields. They include: Argentina, Ecuador, Mexico and Uruguay.

What will SMCers do this summer? Everything! Build and repair buildings; conduct evangelistic crusades; paint; do electrical wiring, plumbing, mechanical work; hold youth camps and Vacation Bible Schools; teach school; coach athletic events; ride horseback or walk back into the jungles for work and evangelism; preach; sing; play instruments; appear on radio and television; work in hospitals and clinics; and lots more. Tiring. Exciting. Challenging. Fun. Frustrating. An unforgettable summer of giving. And receiving. Impossible to come home the same person. Vision is broadened. Concern is heightened. New friendships develop. It's the real thing - this thing called love through giving.

South battled back to tie the game in the sixth, only to have the Trojans score three in the top of the seventh. Charles Torain singled home Jon Thrash with one run. Butch Ekis' sacrifice fly plated Simth while Mike Gamble finished off the seventh by singling home Torain. Larry Reynolds started and was relieved by Jerry Glass who came in to now down the Southerners and nail down his second victory of the season.

The second game saw the Trojans down 6-1 early in the game. They roared back to tie the game on the power of Frank Damron's 400-foot-plus home run over the left center field fence. Rod Stover, after getting off to a rough start, was nailed with the tough loss. He gave up only one hit after the second inning, that being the winning hit by Danny Douglas with two out in the seventh inning. John Thrash had three hits for the Trojans, while Hal Hatley, Stover and Smith had two each.

Pro Athletes Too Can Be Nazarenes

The gospel message of the Church of the Nazarene has reached into the ranks of professional athletics.

Shortstop Fred Patek, before leaving last week for spring training in Florida with the Kansas City (baseball) Royals, testified at Overland Park Nazarene church about his conversion last December. He was led to the Lord by Ron Frye, a seminarian, associate pastor. Patek's wife is from a Nazarene family in central Ohio. Patek was one of the best infielders in the American league last season.

Don Cockroft, of the Cleveland Browns professional football team, is a student this quarter at the Nazarene Bible College in Colorado Springs, Colo.

He and his wife and infant daughter are members of Trinity Nazarene church there where Don was saved when 13. He was the third round draft pick by the Browns in 1967, a standout punter.

TREVECCA 5-7 BRYAN 1-1

Defense and pitching was the name of the game this day as the Trojans swept past the Bryan Lions on the Lions' home field. The first game saw some sterling defense play and clutch pitching by Don Mellish.

The key blow in this game was a two-run two-out double by William Hassell.

The second game saw the Trojans down 1-0 going into the top of the seventh inning. Charles Torain led off the seventh with a single and was promptly tripled home by Frank "Sugar" Damron. The game remained tied until the ninth. Here the Trojans errupted for six runs. Damron once again drove home Torain with the second and eventual winning run, but before the inning was over, freshman Mike Gamble lofted a Butch Ekis also chased home a run in the wild ninth inning. Ekis and Damron turned in sterling defensive games to help preserve the Trojan victory. Jerry Glass was the starting pitcher. He pitched well, but was relieved in the fifth by Torain, who shut out the Lions on a single hit to notch the win.

BELMONT 19 TREVECCA 10

When observing the score you may think that Trevecca was beaten by Belmont in a football contest. This is not so, however, as the hitters for both teams had their shoes on and Belmont out-walloped Trevecca by an unrealistic score of 19-10. Trevecca broke fast by scoring three in the first, only to have Belmont score seven in the second and tack on two in the third to pull within 9-7. Reliever Scott Hon came on for Belmont to somewhat silence the Trojan bats while the Trojans were unable to stop the booming Belmont bats on a day where the wind played havoc with the ball.

The Trojans hit well as their 17-hit attack was paced by William Hassell who had a single, double and triple to knock home three runs. Frank Damron had two hits to extend his batting streak through seven straight games as he collected three hits in five plate appearances. Mike Gamble, Charles Torain, and Dale Smith split six hits between them, Starter Don Mellish suffered the set back, his first after two wins. The Trojans are now 8-3.
