Essentially the theme of every college annual is student life; so it is with this one. The students supply the theme and the material collected within the book. Actually it is a record of the work and play that consumed a year at college. With this in mind, The 1946 Oasis has been published so that the activities created by the students may become lingering memories in the future.

DR. MAUD R. RICE

Dedication

To Dr. Maud R. Rice, Professor of Cemistry and Biological Science, in appreciation of her years of service to this institution, always rendered with characteristic geniality and good fellowship, and in tribute to her beautiful Christian life which is an inspiration to all, this 1946 Oasis is dedicated with affection and esteem.

In Memoriam

The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Campus Shots

Familiar scenes . . . students standing on steps talking over last hour's quiz . . . the dorms that we lived in for nine months of the year . . . the well-used walks crossing the campus . . . small groups gathering on the way to the dining hall at noon . . . these scenes may be remembered when other phases of college are forgotten.

The Administration Building ... long remembered by all of us as the scene of many and varied classes ... Church services in the chapel where many have settled the ultimate goal of their life's journey.

At Morrison Hall, home of the majority of on-campus college co-eds...daylight and dark, students enjoying the companionship of students...intellectually inspired, they tread life's path shoulder to shoulder with a unanimity of purpose.

Big trees shading the walks... bright sunshine...and white clouds enhancing the beauty of the campus on a warm spring day...Gideon Hall, home of all on-campus males.

Certainly college would be incomplete and drab were it not for those pleasant moments of relaxation away from classrooms and lectures... spent in the cultivation of long to be remembered friendships.

The R. T. Williams Library... this is a place where students spend some of their time... studying for an evening...location of publication and professors' offices.

The Dining Hall...perennially the recipient of the most uncomplimentary remarks in the world ...where tardiness is relatively uncommon.

Kampus Korner...where students gather in groups between classes...cokes, hamburgers, or coffee...hours of leisure are spent here.

A front view of Hadley Hall, another home of on-campus co-eds ... with its deep shadows on a lazy afternoon when students feel like lying in the shade and forgetting all their worries and cares.

Across the campus stands the Gymnasium... guardian of balls, nets, and mats...scene of many exciting games...basketball, volleyball, tumbling...classroom for future athletes.

The Grammar School ... training school for elementary teachers ... classes completed ... another day well spent.

A view of the Music Hall ...where many hours are spent making music...a place where beautiful melodies make students forget all their worries and cares.

Briarwood Hall and Parkview Home...new additions necessitated by large influx of girls...inviting hours of leisure and enjoyment are spent within these walls.

BOARD OF REGENTS
FACULTY ADMINISTRATION
STUDENT LEADERS

DR. E. E. MARTIN Chairman

Boara

Molding and shaping the present and future of N.N.C., the Board of Regents is that friendly, intelligent body that assembles each year to determine many of the school's policies.

Students always enjoy talking with the various members and hearing them speak in chapel.

Meeting March 13 and 14 this year, the Regents approved the construction of the new men's dormitory and participated in the ground-breaking ceremony.

Ground-breaking for boys' dormitory

3 Regents

Ground was officially broken Thursday, March 14, for the construction of a new $120,000 men's dormitory on the campus of N. N. C., with Dr. Corlett turning the first shovel of dirt.

Dr. Martin, chairman of the Board of Regents, said, in a brief address, "Colleges don't just happen. They are the result of vision, of genius, and the genius of this institution is a deep religious conviction."

DR. L. T. CORLETT, A.B., D.D.

President of College

Professor of Homiletics

Perceives his trust and keeps faith with it...capable leader...inspiring teacher and guide...one who accomplishes projects...unfailing trust in God...pursuer of the best in each day's store..."He taught, but first he followed it himself."

Peace...world co-operation...the atomic age...demobilization...return of the boys...normalcy. These were the things the world had bled, sweat, and prayed for. And now they have come, and N. N. C. has already felt the change from war to peace. The relaxation of wartime strain has brought fresh courage and hope to each of us. Anticipation runs high. The first postwar year holds many promises of peaceful activity.

More and more we are coming to realize that the greatest honor N. N. C. can confer upon an individual is to make him an A. D. P.

We are proud of the enviable records which our society has established in the various activities, but we are out to arise, with grim determination; declare with our might; and possess still more of the laurels which are offered to the victors.

Co-operation and organization were the keynotes for our society. Acknowledging the challenge of the older societies, the members have set to work with a will.

Active participation in each of the events showed that their acceptance of the challenge was no idle threat. Nor have we failed in our activities to keep our school motto in mind—that of seeking first the Kingdom of God.

Striving to create a friendly and cheerful atmosphere about the campus, and graciously rising to each occasion, the A. W. S. endeavored to take a place of service throughout the year in the social life of N. N. C.

Under the leadership of versatile Verona Taves, new girls were adopted by "big sisters," who helped them get acquainted with our college. February brought Heart Sister Week, with good fairy "heart sisters" mysteriously doing favors for one another.

The Men's Club Council acts as a governing board for the Men's Club, which includes all men students of the college. A thorough program giving every man an opportunity to participate in activities was organized by this council.

Various times during the year informal parlor meetings were held for all men students. These meetings were for the purpose of discussing and receiving suggestions on problems of life on the campus.

Usually found hobnobbing with a pile of geography, history, and reading books, members of the normal department play an important part in N. N. C.'s student body. Adhering firmly to the axiom that Christian principles plus thorough training equal better education, this group has had a chance to prove its thesis through practice teaching in the grammar school and Academy. Under the capable instruction of Professor Ethel Allison

Under the capable instruction of Professor Ethel Allison and Professor Donald Laughlin, the F. T. A. has proved loyal to the tradition of turning out a group of well-trained Christian leaders for future generations of young Americans as well as sponsoring several worth-while projects.

The Art Department has grown in leaps without bounds during this last year. Students in all departments took an interest in the smelly art laboratory as their primitive nature cropped out to show their love for wrapping up in a gaudy smock, grabbing satisfactory messy material, setting up an easel, and getting smeared.

Time flies as students, garbed in smocks, patiently work for the desired effect in oil and chall paintings.

ART EXHIBIT

In spite of this inartistic effect upon the students there was an abundance of real talent discovered in a very short time. Work in creative chalk, sculpturing, cartooning, commercial art, painting, and art methods displayed by the students brought praise not only from N. N. C. but from the public as well.

Putting aside assignments for ninety minutes, orchestra members take their instruments twice weekly to the chapel. As they enter, the tuning of strings and brasses produces a symphony of discord. Recreation and the creation of beauty are ultimate aims of this enthusiastic class, as well as valuable musical experience.

The orchestra presented a concert of well known classical music, featuring the famous "Salute to the United Nations."

PROFESSOR ROGER TAYLOR

Distinctive interpretations of varied types of music have made the A Cappella Choir outstanding in its performances this year. Garbed in their black robes and orange surplices, the group sang for College Church Sunday mornings and presented concerts at several churches on the district. Under the direction of Professor Roger Taylor, an extended trip was made to the Pacific coast where concerts were given in the larger churches in Oregon and Washington.

For the fall and spring revivals, and for church services and chapel programs, the Academy Mixed Chorus and Girls' Glee Club have provided choir numbers and group specials.

Philharmonic Choral Society

With more than 150 students taking part, the Philharmonic Choral Society thrilled a large audience with its stirring presentation of George Frederick Handel's "The Messiah" in the Central High Auditorium at Christmas time.

Solo parts were taken by Uvonna Bacon, soprano; Eunice Lintz, contralto; Roger Taylor, tenor; and David Sullivan, bass. An annual event at N. N. C., this year's presentation under the direction of Professor Roger Taylor was one of the most outstanding yet presented.

Knowledge and understanding of philosophy as a basis for a better life—toward this end members of the Philosophy Club, headed by David Sullivan, constantly strive.

Three items are necessary for yearly membership: a student must have been enrolled in school for the full year; he must have been carrying at least twelve hours of college classes; he must have maintained a grade point average of 2.4.

Any student maintaining a grade point of 2.4 for the full four years of college is then eligible to election to Phi Delta Lambda, the national honor society of Nazarene Colleges.

Standing a bit apart from the rest of the buildings but still close enough to remain a substantial factor in the life of N. N. C. is the Samaritan Hospital. Here and there about the campus one may see the white uniforms of the nurses as they pass from classes to the hospital or cut across the park to the large three-story building which is the nurses' home.

N. N. C. takes pride in having such an outstanding group of young women taking part in the school activities. Training now to crusade against death, disease, and pain, they will fill a vital need in American life.

REV. JOHN E. RILEY
Pastor

The College Church is perhaps the most potent factor in the maintenance of a high level of spirituality in the college. Its twofold purpose is being well realized, for it is adequately providing a church home for the students and is also providing ample opportunity for the exercise of individual talent in religious services. The inspirational singing, the challenging messages, and the definite evangelistic emphasis, have combined to urge all to higher spiritual attainments. Rev. John E. Riley has proved himself to be more than a preacher, for he has been a spiritual father to many who have sought his counsel and advice.

All theory and no practice brings stagnation. An ounce of experience is worth a pound of book learning. The soldier learns the formalities of warfare in the training camp, but he makes a poor warrior unless he has faced the grim realities of front-line combat.

These ideas explain the purpose behind the work of the N. Y. P. S., which gives opportunities to Christian workers and puts classroom theory into actual practice.

Virgil Vail has done a commendable job of leading the group and as a result some very effective and interesting programs have been produced.

Revival fires blazed forth in three conflagrations during the school year, under the leadership of three outstanding preachers: Rev. M. Kimber Moulton, Rev. J. A. McNatt, and Rev. Holland London. These were the human instruments which God used to bring faculty and students alike up to higher planes of Christian experience. Rev. Paul Hill also thrilled our souls with his stirring lectures during the Miller Lecture Series.

The manifestations of God's presence seemed to be felt in abundance this school year.

Providing an outlet for the talents of young ministers, and satisfying a vital need in Nampa's outlying communities, the Christian Workers' Band has proved to be a real instrument of blessing.

Each Sunday groups including teachers, singers, and ministers visit small churches and outpoints within a radius of twenty miles. This not only affords an opportunity for students, but is a great help to these churches, most of which are too small to employ a full-time pastor.

With the aim of serving humanity, the burden of souls on their hearts, and Christ as their leader, the Christian Workers have faithfully done their part to advance the kingdom.

DONALD PETERMAN President

Growth in numbers and in spirit marked the College Missionary Society and the Foreign Mission Band in 1945-46. Headed by Leona Aggola and Donald Peterman, the organizations increased the missionary zeal among the students.

In several challenging programs, held weekly, students told of their calls to foreign and home missions. Returned missionaries spoke to the college under the sponsorship of the society, telling of their life on the mission field and of the power of God to strengthen and keep in the face of heathen disease and superstition.

Under the guidance of Coach LaMont Lee, commonly known as "Monty," sports form an integral part of the students' program at Northwest Nazarene College. We are proud of the Crusaders and although we are sometimes disappointed in losing a game, still we have the satisfaction that it was a good clean game. This year, as in the past, the team toured, playing colleges in Oregon and Washington. Perhaps the game all will remember the longest, however, is the game with the "House of David," which left us all laughing for many days to come.

Basketball

When cold winds and wintry weather finally best even the bravest of N. N. C. athletes, basketball comes to the fore in sports. The college gym is invaded by ball hawks who sink "swishers" from way out and pot difficult corner shots along with the best.

Basketball

Not all of the action takes place on the floor, for the actual game is child's play compared with the rival exhibitions put on by enthusiastic spectators named Ed Dowd or Willard Midby or any other member of the student body.

etball

Basketball games—most popular athletic contest on the campus. Our over-craned necks and severely strained vocal cords seemed a small price to pay when we won—and when we lost, the thought of having food down town or at the snack bar helped revive our drooping spirits.

When action began to wane or during a time-out, Bette Harding, Evelyn Day, Wes and Wayne Johnson usually ran out onto the floor like seasoned commandos and urged us to "hit it!"

"Hit it! C-C-CRU S-S-SAD E-E-ERS Crusaders!" This was the theme yell given over and over this year by our four cheer leaders. This peppy little group composed of vivacious Bette Harding, light-hearted Evelyn Day, strong-voiced Wesley Johnson, and bashful Wayne Johnson did much to raise the morale of the players and make this season's sports a success. Fifteen for the wonderful work and faithfulness of these four!

Yell Jeam

Academy

Staging a remarkable comeback from the previous season, the Academy basketball team came into its own again this year.

In a schedule which was featured by many close scores, the players fought well, won worthily, and lost graciously in true N. N. C. style. As a pocket edition of the varsity Crusaders, they have upheld ideals as well as played good basketball.

Competition in basketball in the Academy is a vital part of each student's activity. Usually in the preliminary game before a college bout the academy five plays a team from a high school in this vicinity. Competition is keen, demanding the best that can be put into it. Consequently, the games are "thrillers," and from the first blow of the whistle the game is packed with excitement.
